

E Primary or Beginning Reader Sentences and Names

Sentences are for the Primary or Beginning Reader material.

Print on white paper and cut to 1 in. by 4 in.

Glue on to yellow card stock which is cut to 4 1/2 in. x 1 1/2 in.

Name cards are for the Primary or Pre-Reader material.

Print on white paper and cut to 1 in. by 4 in.

Glue on to yellow card stock which is cut to 4 1/2 in. x 1 1/2 in.

Dorothy Day cooked soup for the poor in New York City.

Adolfo Perez Esquivel helped mothers work together for peace.

The tomb is empty. Jesus is RISEN!

People who sleep outside because they don't have homes were given blankets by Trevor Ferrell.

Grape pickers were helped by Cesar Chavez.

George Fox and Margaret Fell preached about the Light of Jesus within each person.

Children delivered mail to Adin Ballou at Hopedale.

Lucretia Mott worked nonviolently to break the chains of slavery.

St. Boniface loved the people of Germany.

St. Francis gave away his fancy clothes and depended on God.

Archbishop Camara said, "Stop the spiral of violence."

Fr. Emmanuel teaches about Jesus, the Nonviolent Lamb of God.

Emmy and Eberhard shared their household objects with others.

Martin and Coretta King dreamed and worked for everyone to be respected.

Fr. Dan Berrigan and Fr. Phil Berrigan protested against war.

In London, England, the poor were helped by Muriel Lester.

Mary wants us to obey her Son Jesus.

Clothes were not important to Peter Maurin but being kind was.

Gandhi's bag of salt is a sign of the power of nonviolence.

Maximilian would not join the army or wear its uniform.

"Stop the violence," is what Conrad Grebel wrote in his letter.

Four hundred messages about Love—that's what St. Maximus wrote!

Clarence Jordan planted seeds of nonviolent love for all.

Many families learned how to be peaceful from Jim and Kathleen McGinnis.

Fr. McKenzie, an expert on the Bible, said “Jesus taught love of enemies.”

Christians like Menno Simons reflect the face of Jesus just like a mirror.

Professor McSorley kept busy working to end all war.

Mother Teresa’s work, taking care of the poor, is powerful peace work.

Dr. Montessori wanted children all around the world to work together for true peace.

If you want to learn about peace read Leo Tolstoy’s writings.

One witness for peace was A. J. Muste.

Professor John Howard Yoder wrote many books about the Lamb of God.

Prayers said by Origen were a powerful help for peace.

The censer reminds us of Fr. Zabelka and a church that was destroyed in war.

Blue shoes protected Peace Pilgrim’s feet as she walked many miles for peace.

Professor Gordon Zahn’s name was on a list of people who would not fight in war.

Archbishop Chacour started a school for peace.

Martin Luther King &
Coretta Scott King

Wool clothing was made for Lanza Del Vasto.

Eberhard and Emmy Arnold

Mary

Peace Pilgrim

Jesus

Origen

Dorothy Day

George Fox and Margaret Fell

Cesar Chavez

St Maximilian

Fr. John L. McKenzie

Mohandas Gandhi

Fr. Emmanuel McCarthy

St. Francis of Assisi

Clarence Jordan

Trevor Ferrell

Mother Teresa of Calcutta

Dr. Maria Montessori

Conrad Grebel

Dom Helder Camara