

M Glossary Photo and C Sets Listed for Organizational Purposes

Top portion of the photo is the Glossary booklet (Set A), sometimes called the control booklet, answer booklet or key.

Bottom left is Set B—the word is moveable. The glossary words are divided into several sets. A child takes one set, reads the card and places the answer on or above the definition card, then uses the control booklet to check the work.

The bottom right portion of the photo shows set C. All parts are moveable. The glossary words are divided in to 8 sets according to the list included in this document. The child organizes all strips; this requires thorough knowledge of the words and definitions.

R Glossary C Set Contents—number of words per set and number of parts per word (s=sentence; n=noun) For example: Set 1 has 8 words in the set; antimilitarism has 6 parts—6 strips. Confessor has 4 strips and 2 sentences. This list helps with organization.
