

Leave It in the Hands of the Lord

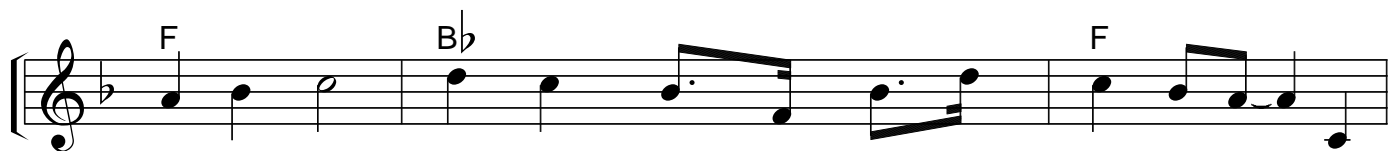

Words and Music,
Sebastian Temple

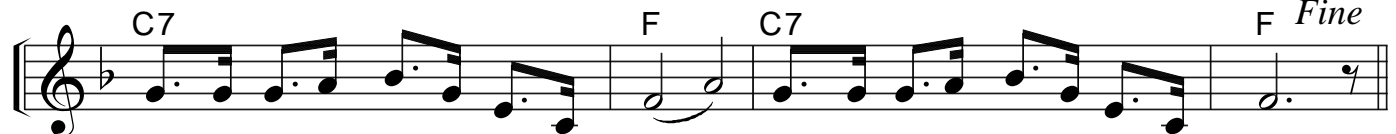

Leave it in the hands of the Lord,— Leave it in the hands of the Lord.

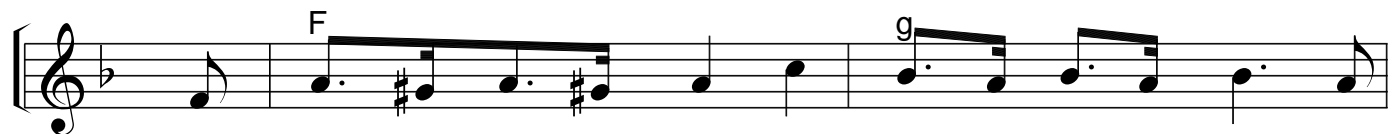

Do not wor - ry o - ver what to eat,— What to wear— or put upon your feet, Trust and serve and do your best to-day,— Then leave it in the hands of the Lord,—Leave it in the hands of the Lord.

1 The lil - ies of the field, they do not spin nor weave, yet 2 The Lord knows all your needs, he knows be - fore you ask, so

Sol - o - mon was not ar - rayed like one of these; the on - ly trust in him, for he will do the task of birds— of the air, they do not sow or reap, but bring - ing in your life what - ev - er you must know, he'll

God— tends to them like a shep-herd tends his sheep.
lead you thru the dark - ness wher - ev - er you must go.
